WOODLAND, CALIFORNIA

VENDOR INFORMATION

ANTIQUES AND COLLECTIBLES FAIR / HOME DECOR AND RENOVATION FAIR

 The Stroll Through History is a celebration of Woodland's cultural and architectural history, which dates back to 1850. Fortunes were made on the rich agricultural lands, and Woodland was once one of the nation's most prosperous communities. The wealth and pride still shows in the grand and stately Victorian mansions along the shady, tree-lined streets.

 In addition to the Open Home Tours, walking tours, musical entertainment, food and museum tours; the Stroll features an Antiques and Collectibles Fair/Home Decor and Renovation Fair. The Stroll attracts thousands of people from the area and throughout Northern California. The Stroll has been featured in Sunset magazine, Via (AAA), Victorian Homes and Sacramento magazines. History has even met the future with our new Web Page, <http://www.StrollThroughHistory.com> .

 The Antique and Collectibles Fair is located on Main Street Woodland between Third and College Street; and will be expanded to some space availability at Freeman Park. This fair offers antiques, oak and walnut furniture, nick-knacks, collectibles, glassware, china, estate jewelry, silver, furniture, rugs, etc..

 The Home Decor and Renovation Fair is located with Antique and Collectibles as described above and features service providers, crafters, artists, home improvements, decorators, etc. Vendors offering pottery, art, stationery, clothing, jewelry, quilts and wall hangings, decorations, perfumes, and old-fashioned trinkets are located here, as well as millworks, rugs, plaques, gazebos, siding and fencing, lampposts and mailboxes, reproduction stained glass, doors, etc. A 12 x 12 space is $60, or a double space for $90 which includes a one day city permit fee. Your permit will be given to you on the day of the Stroll.

If additional information is needed contact Steve Barzo at (530) 666-4729 (Application is attached)

 Deadline for reservations is August 30th, no refunds after this date! The fair is outdoors on paved surfaces with the exception of Freeman Park. It's usually quite warm in Woodland in September, so canopies are a must for shade!
Bring a cooler and other comforts. Sorry, no electricity is available.

 The Stroll is a non-profit charitable organization. All proceeds from ticket sales and booth spaces are donated to worthy preservation and restoration efforts in our community.
